

Please leave the Indiana phone privacy law alone. I used to get calls four or five times a week interrupting my supper now I can enjoy my food. I now can sit and relax and enjoy my TV shows without interruption from sales people that cannot take no for an answer. I feel it is the responsibility of the people that I elected in Indiana to set laws in this state and they should not be lessened or overturned unless they are unconstitutional and then should be overturned by a court.